LIFELONG LEARNING

A COURSE IN UNSCHOOLING

From 2nd generation unschoolers, Jacob & Keesha via

WHAT IS UNSCHOOLING?

- Unschooling is simply learning without schooling.
- Unschooling is child-directed learning.

“ The illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn, and relearn. ”

- Alvin Toffler

As parents, a major question most of us have is,
“How can we ensure our kids get a good education?”
But as unschoolers, we’re asking a different question:

HOW CAN WE ENSURE THAT OUR KIDS BECOME LIFELONG LEARNERS?

That’s the question we are setting out to answer in this course.

We want you to walk away with a confidence knowing that you are laying a foundation of lifelong learning for your children that will carry them through life.
